

PSYCHOLOGICAL ASSOCIATION OF THE PHILIPPINES

Application for Accreditation as Continuing Professional Education Activity

In support of its program of certifying psychology specialists, the PAP accredits continuing professional education (CPE) activities for its members. All organizations may submit their CPE activities for accreditation. Activities accredited by the PAP will be recognized by the PAP for the renewal of the certification of psychology specialists.

Organizations that are accredited by the PAP as CPE provider need not apply for the accreditation of their activities. Only organizations that have not been accredited by the PAP as a CPE provider need to apply for accreditation of the activity.
